Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1 Yamil Gonzalez-Figueroa violated the following standard condition of supervised release, ‘The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substance, except as prescribed by a physician’.

Mr. Gonzalez submitted a urine sample on April 20, 2023, that returned positive for buprenorphine.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Gonzalez-Figueroa admitted to this officer that he consumed a portion of a Suboxone strip on April 17, 2023. Mr. Gonzalez-Figueroa explained that he had become frustrated with being unemployed and with other life stressors. This officer addressed the drug use with Mr. Gonzalez-Figueroa by doing a risk-benefit analysis regarding his illegal drug use and how that can affect other aspects of his personal life and supervision. Mr. Gonzalez-Figueroa became emotional and admitted that he made a poor choice. He acknowledged that he would be risking the support of his family and the possibility of adverse action being taken against him by the Court.

Yamil Gonzalez-Figueroa

On June 5, 2023, Mr. Gonzalez-Figueroa commenced employment with Federal Express. He advised that the company routinely drug tests him and that he cannot risk losing employment. At this time, we respectfully request no court action be taken against Mr. Gonzalez-Figueroa as he has been referred to Integrity House for a new substance abuse assessment and treatment as recommended. This office will continue to monitor Mr. Gonzalez-Figueroa's compliance and will notify the Court of any subsequent positive tests or further non-compliance.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
